EDITOR IN DISTRESS

Back out, back out! That's pretty much what I did this weekend. I backed out of going to the Combat Sports Expo in Fort Worth and to this really killer show featuring Absu, cause I didn't want to waste money on gas and I pretty much didn't have money to spend. I did go out to the Invasion Car Show. That was really fun. I just wish I had some money to spend. Oh well. My friend Sam/DV8 Photography came out and took pictures of some hot ladies (Zamra, Melissa Meaow and Taffeta Darling) next to some awesome hot rods. (Those pictures are on page 16, in color!) I got to meet Sarah who does Dynamite Dames Photography and some of her lovely models who will be in the Dynamite Dames calendar coming out in October. I think my new favorite dames are Miss Tavvah and Hi Tone. Check out the picture of me with them below. Ladies, check out the Dynamite Dames Myspace and book a photo shoot appointment. Right now they are booking spots for a hot rod shoot in November.

<http://www.myspace.com/dynamitedamesphotography>

My band, Blood Ov..., recorded yesterday. It was a pretty fun experience, after we got a little bit drunk. We started recording around 3pm and kept making minor mistakes, so we decided to chill and have some drinks. After an hour we were loosened up and ready to go. Pretty much nailed the first take. Took another break and nailed the second songs. The rough mix sounds pretty killer and can't wait to hear the finished mix. Now we gotta save up to release it on vinyl. Screw CD's, but we'll probably have burn copies available.

Right now the magazine is really lacking in coverage of the DFW hip hop scene and also the urban strip clubs, so if you're interested in seeing your name in the paper give me a ring or send an email. We can't pay you, but we get you some recognition. -Gil Tha Thrill

The Men's Club in Charlotte, Deja Vu and Rachelle Laree Win Big at Exotic Dancer's EXPO 2009: "Building a Winning Team in Your Club"

For the 12th straight year, ED (Exotic Dancer) Publications' Annual Adult Nightclub & Exotic Dancer Awards Show presented awards to the top adult nightclubs, industry executives and feature entertainers at the industry's only national awards show. Held during the 17th Annual Gentlemen's Club Owners EXPO on Tuesday, August 25th at the brand new "Join!" showroom inside the Hard Rock Hotel & Casino, the show was dubbed the "Rock N Jock Awards Show" and featured a live rock band and several special guest presenters. Adult film superstarlet Jessica Drake hosted the show along with renowned club emcee Markie Mark.

The evening's biggest winners included Rachelle Laree (pictured), who was crowned ED's Overall Entertainer of the Year; The Men's Club in Charlotte, North Carolina, which took home the prestigious Overall Gentlemen's Club of the Year Award; and Déjà Vu, which won the Club Chain of the Year Award. (A complete list of winners is provided at the end of this release.)

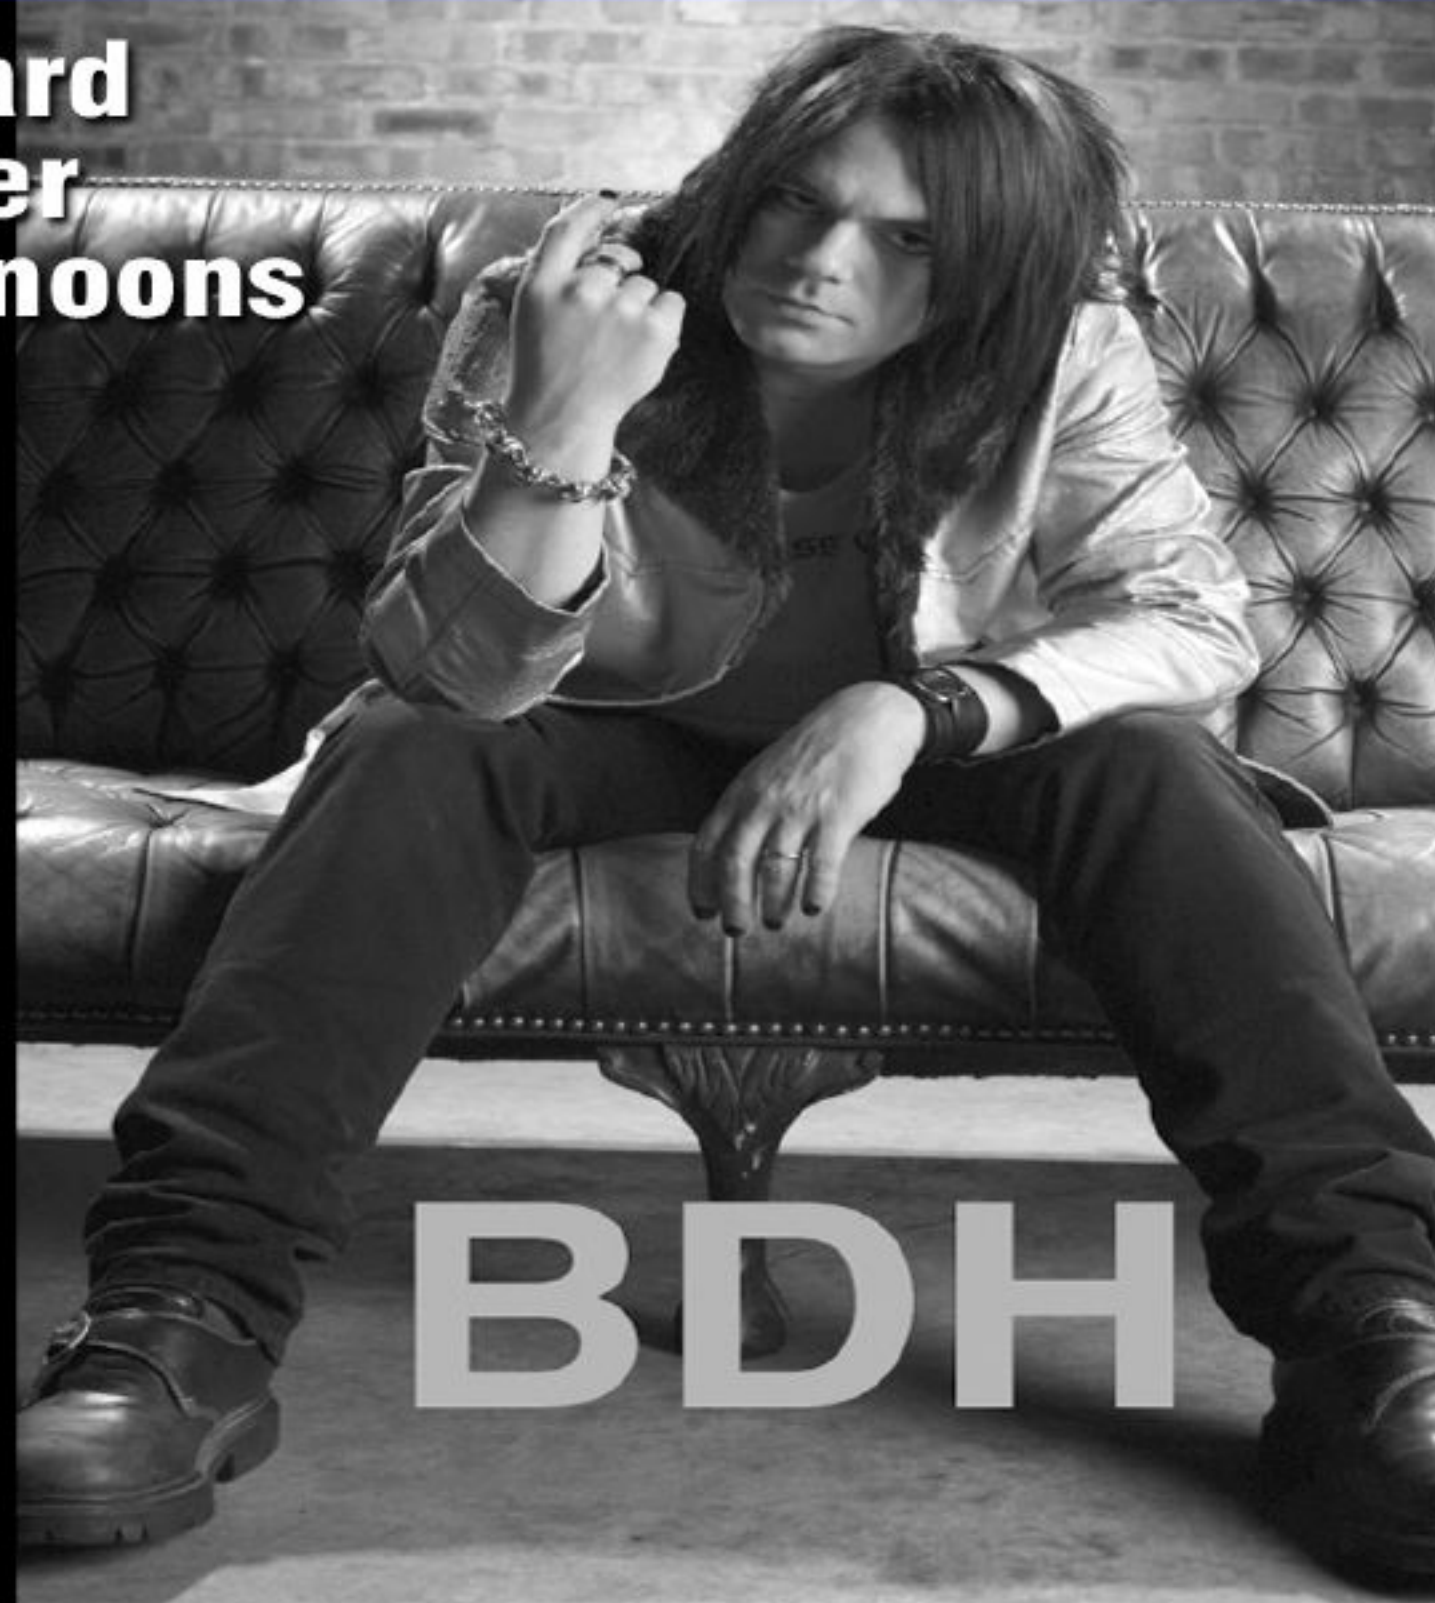

For the first time ever, ED Publications presented the House Mom of the Year Award for the industry's top club "house mom." Coupled with the return of the General Manager of the Year Award, these awards coincided with the EXPO's sports-related theme, "Building a Winning Team in Your Club."

For more information on the 17th Annual Gentlemen's Club Owners EXPO or the Annual ED's Awards Show, please visit www.EDpublications-today.com, or call (727) 726-3592.

METRO ANE SPORTS

There's been a major change in the sports Metroplex that happened this past weekend. Maybe it wasn't the shot that was heard 'round the world, but believe me, shots like this don't have to be loud to be significant.

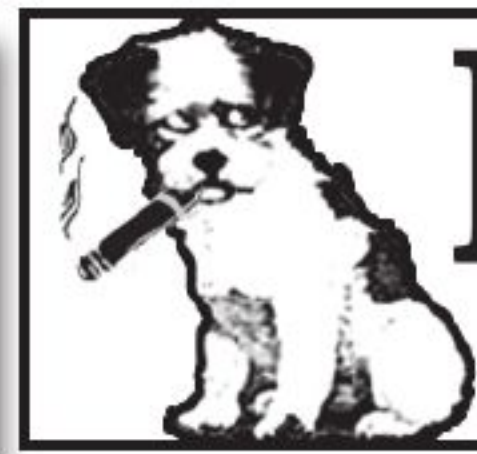

Just what kinda shock wave was this? It was the area's first large scale mixed martial arts sports expo.

A number of you missed this first timer, maybe you were taking that last vacation, or glued to college games, but the next time the DFW area gets this, you need to slam yourself into the game and full metal it over.

The exhibitions of grappling and fighting were not just explained well, but physically presented in a way that actually taught people what was happening in these sports. I heard many say they were walking away with a more complete understanding of the sport and were even more excited about watching contests.

The general public really has no idea what mixed martial arts is. The question is, why should they when basically all they've been shown are mostly cheesy karate movies? They think that martial arts are for people who want to go around fighting, and they think the sport is just like the fake wrestling. That's a long ways from reality.

For those of you who attended this weekend's expo, you've found out just how much mixed martial arts truly is as a sport, and it has become so popular it has virtually kicked boxing out of the ring. But it's also developed as a life and health enhancer.

There were several training centers in attendance and I found all of them to be courteous, professional, and very knowledgeable about how to introduce someone, male or female, to the sport in developmental methods. From little children to senior citizens, this sport has a lot to offer everyone. Not simply just for self defense, but for overall physical and mental health.

I spoke with Carla T who started training at age 50 and has been doing this for over six years. Her before and after pictures are startling. Her husband, who's pushing 60, just took it up about nine months ago and he has nothing but positive feelings for what it's done for his ability to get around.

If you're older and have concerns about falling, walking, balance, focus, etc, you might want to investigate this as a whole life health tool. Visit several types of schools, for example tai chi, karate, judo, etc, and get a feel for what more address your needs.

Two very fine children's programs are the American Academy of Martial Arts in Ft. Worth (817-244-6373), and the Dallas MMA300 (214-952-3965).

An outstanding program for both self-defense and whole body health is the Fighting Method University. It's located in Ft. Worth, 817-938-8888.

Most sports do offer many positive character building traits, but very few offer you a mental and physical lifestyle that you can carry on with throughout your entire life. Team sports like football, basketball, and hockey are severely limited in participation to age and ability. Mixed martial arts offer you a way to have the physical and mental confidence, self esteem, focus, and awareness that your life should have.

For those of you who are interested in the fighting, questions of protecting the athletes keep being thrown at me. Since this isn't like football or hockey with a load of padding all over the body, injuries are inevitable. In the early years these guys just found some place and got it on. Now, with organization and public acceptance, fight venues are held in arenas, and in better protected cages.

But what happens with the athletes when injuries do occur? Insurance. Yes, mixed martial arts fighters now have access to insurance coverage during fights. Affordable insurance coverage.

Insuring athletes has been around for years, but not for martial arts fighting. This has changed. For the last few years, FDL (Francis L. Dean & Assoc.) have been taking the lead in covering the arena, and covering the fighters.

One of the best descriptions was up to 20 fighters being able to share the cost of the coverage which really made the damage to the pocket minimal. The coverage lasts for the evening's fights, and fighters have immediate access to it, if necessary.

Considering the injuries can include eye damage, broken bones, lacerations, organ problems, etc, then being able to have medical insurance to help cover this is great news. By the way, if you're a fighter, student, or in this for the health benefits, and you have any kind of question about how to help yourself with sports insurance, you might wanna give Tammy Westbrook at FDL a call (817-810-0507). She is extremely knowledgeable and can help steer you in a good direction.

All in all, it was a great opening salvo to bring more martial arts awareness to the DFW area. Let's get to some action. Yeah, like some NFL action.

Week One:

Thursday, Sept 10, 7:30 CST, NBC
Titans v Steelers

If you're gonna stage an opener on national tv, it might as well be a conference contest between two power houses. Neither team did all that much to their rosters over the break, both think they've got the horses to run, and they're two of the top three teams in the AFC. The Steelers look to repeat back to the Super Bowl and the Titans believe they're knockin' on the door.

Sunday, Sept 13

Noon games

Out of nine games we got three premiums, three good 'n solids, and three dogs. The top ranked are Cowboys at Bucs, Dolphins at Falcons, and Jets at Texans. The solids are Jag's at Colts, Vikings at Browns, and Eagles at Panthers. The bottom dwellers are the usual suspects: Bronco's at Bengals, Lions at Saints, and Chiefs at Ravens. I got New York and Houston ranked high because it oughta be one of the best defensive games of the weekend, we got a Ryan back head coaching, and FUN is the word.

3:00 pm games

We got one really good one: 49er's at Cards, a middle of the road: Redskins at Giants, and a stinker: Rams at Seahawks. I think Single-tary's gonna introduce his Niner defense to the Cards early and often. Very curious to see what Washington and New York's offense's are gonna be like. Rams may have a better de-

7:00 game

This oughta be a doozy: Bears at Packers. If you don't know why, I can't help you.

Monday Night Football

This is a double header and stupid. Why schedule a game where we got to be ready to watch at 6 pm? This gives it to California at 4 pm where nobody's even out of work yet. First game's a good 'un, the Bills at Patriots. The AFC East is one tough division and this marks the first showdown and the return of TO. The second game comes along at 9:15, and it was geared to make the West Coast happy, sort of. Chargers at Raiders. Hold your nose.

Whadda ya think about the Rangers? This is probably the best put together staff in club history. Yeah, I said that. Even over the three times we hit the post season, this is a better club. Relevant. For any team in baseball to say they're relevant right now is a hell'uva deal, for the Rangers to actually BE relevant, well, you've now witnessed pigs flying.

We got somethin' over two dozen games left in the MLB 2009 season, and the HUGE question mark is how they finish. They don't have to make the post season to be good, they've already shown they can be good. What they HAVE to do is finish well. If they can be called relevant at the end, even if missing the wild card, this is the foundation that was needed for next season.

Does Texas have a more than a snowballs chance of making the playoffs? Probably. Not yes, not no, but probably. I wudda gone better, but with Hamilton not healing up, man, that lineup is thin at a key slot.

Even without Josh, the Rangers are now at a situationally specific learning point. They HAVE to take advantage of these last games, meaning, learning how to face closing a season out. For a team who for more years had trouble just closing a game out, this is a very big deal.

How much of this success do I attribute to Hicks? Minimal. I put the major emphasis for success on Head Coach Washington. The man's a baseball man from the core out. I give credit to GM Daniels for helping to bring Nolan Ryan on board who helped Daniels and Hicks NOT pull the trigger on trades. In the process I believe Hicks, Daniels, and Ryan all learned some valuable lessons.

If Washington doesn't get Coach of the Year it'll be the worst call in MLB history, and that's sayin' somethin'.

Two Dogs:

Hey, I don't get how this Blount guy can be suspended from the football program and still be on full scholarship? He gets to practice with the team and the school still pays him to go to classes. I thought when a player was suspended they were off a team and had to pay for their own classes like any normal student? Seems like this is some of the continued "favoritism" show to jocks that gets them into this kind of situation. No class here.

Link

Dallas

Link:

Good question. Considering that this guy had already been suspended once and his best attitude toward the program was mocking, it's hard to put that together. You'd think they could pull the scholarship and award it to a more deserving student athlete. It could be compassion for last year's contribution, but more than likely it's something administrative, like maybe if they pulled it they lost it, or some other form of restriction. He never heard what Hout said to him, just punched him because he got touched, then punched one of his own players, and then went after the fans. I think the scholarship should've been pulled and he pays his own way through school.

How come the Cowboys don't get to start the season on Thursday night? They're one of the winningest teams of all time, with fans all over the world. America's Team should start the season for America's Game!!

Dan

Dallas

Dan:

The NFL owners are all mad over the fact that Dallas and Detroit have the annual lock on Thanksgiving Day, even though nobody else wanted it. That's why MNF came along, why Thursday games came along and now some double header on Monday nights: so's the other owners could get some of the limelight. Jealousy isn't a great thing any way you slice it, but that's what this is, and until Jones agrees to give up Thanksgiving, he/we aren't gonna get to open the season in the solo time slot. It's said the owners don't interfere with the schedulers, and when that statement becomes true, the sun will be rising from the West.

TD

Two Dogs:

Will TO make an impact with Buffalo this year or is that all hype? I think he's used up and can't even be used as a decoy. If he does half his numbers from Dallas he'll over achieve. The guys out.

Clark

Duncanville

Clark:

Well, why don't you just jump out there and tell the rest of us how you feel? Hey, maybe emotions tell people TO's a flop, but about the only thing most pro's see is that he may, just MAY be a tad slower. If that toe heals fine, and if Edwards can get the ball anywhere near him, his numbers should be better than you project. He doesn't like being a decoy, but once the defense has to roll off him, he should get more. Jones didn't let him go because of diminished skills, he did it to help Romo. Big difference.

Two Dogs:

How can Hamilton's injury from running into the wall still be so bad it's keeping him out of games? Is he jiving this for contract or sympathy, or is he really hurt?

Skip

Ft Worth

Skip:

Ah, man, you gonna hurt somebody's feeling's you go around talkin' like that.

TD

Two Dogs:

Last year we had two rookie QB's start, Ryan for the Falcons and Flacco for the Ravens. Will this year's two rookies, Stafford for the Lions and Sanchez for the Jets do as well? Does this mean the teams are now going to give young quarterbacks an earlier start?

Felix

Midlothian

Felix:

If by success you don't include the playoffs, well, yeah, maybe. Sanchez has a better developed roster around him with the Jets than Stafford does with Detroit. I think the Lions only made the decision because Culpepper's injured. I still like the Jets at 8-8, give or take.

TD

Two Dogs:

Is the wildcat offense that difficult that NFL teams are now including it in their plans? Can any team run it? It seems more of a trick play than a real down and distance shot.

Mark

Carrollton

Mark:

Success is measured in forward progress with offenses and yards defended with defenses. The wild cat requires a skilled hand at running it, which not all teams have. The NFL coaches are just like car manufactures, they'll copy a winner every time, which is easier than being creative. Just like the flea flicker, it'll probably have a place.

20-Year-Old Dream Taking Shape In Backyard

That thing in Dennis Schaller's back yard off 45th Street looks like:

- A. A scaled-down version of Han Solo's Millennium Falcon from "Star Wars."
- B. An Airstream trailer on steroids.
- C. A DeLorean sports car from the early '80s on some really serious steroids.
- D. Absolutely nothing else at all.

"Most people think it's a spaceship," Schaller said of his silver creation that measures 56 feet long, 20 feet wide and 17 feet tall. "It was originally designed to be a hovercraft. Now it looks like it's going to end up as a houseboat. I won't live long enough to get enough money to make it a hovercraft — not unless I went back to work full time; and then I wouldn't have the time to work on it."

Given Schaller's background, the spaceship guess isn't so far-fetched.

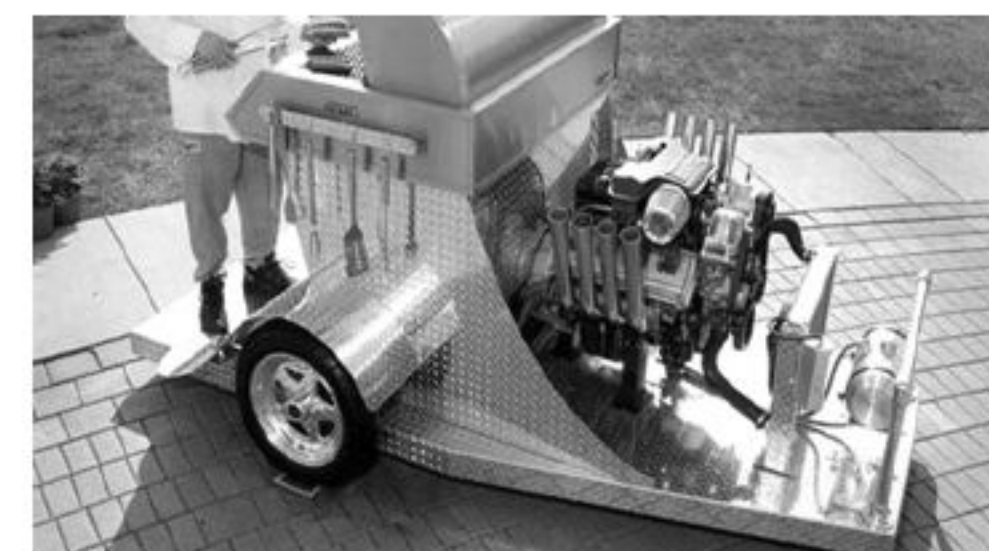

At the center of the craft is a travel trailer Schaller found in the woods in Fellsmere and bought for $100. The vessel, for lack of a better word, is a mixture of the practical and the fanciful. The front door, for example, opens hydraulically like the alien spacecraft from "Close Encounters of the Third Kind."

"Not being a rich man, I've had to build a lot of it out of junk," he said, noting the lifeboat is made from a former acid dipping vat from the Piper Aircraft plant in Vero Beach and an old satellite dish.

Schaller said he'd like to float the boat in Lake Okeechobee.

"I've got two more years to go if I keep working steady every day," Schaller said. "Of course, I've been saying 'two more years' for about 10 years now."

345 Horsepower, 5.7-Liter HEMI V-8 Engine Powered Barbeque

Schaller started building rockets when he was a kid. He made a solid-fuel jet engine in high school shop class and, at age 15, took first place in the engineering division of the 1960 Georgia State Science Fair for a rocket he'd built.

He was a rocket engine mechanic in the Air Force before becoming an electrical engineer with North American Aviation, where he worked on several Apollo missions, including the Apollo 11 craft that landed on the moon, and the early Space Shuttle program. He's lived in Gifford since 1989.

That's about the time he started working on his hovercraft/houseboat.

"It's been a 20-year project," the 65-year-old Schaller said. "So far."

Yes folks, this is a man's barbeque. That's Tim Kowalec firing up Chrysler Group's one-of-a-kind HEMI-powered grill at an event to announce the top five finalists in the company's "What Can You HEMI?" contest. Until the event, the HEMI engine was only found in Chrysler, Jeep or Dodge vehicles. With the power and torque of the 5.7-liter V-8 HEMI engine, the grill can cook 240 HEMI dogs in three minutes and is covered by more than 330 square feet of steel. The contest involved people sending in concepts for machines that could be powered by a 5.7-liter HEMI V-8 engine. Five of the best ideas became semi-finalists and Chrysler engineers then built working models of the concept machines. The event was won by a Hemi-powered trike with a custom 4-foot wheel but some serious machinery filled the placings — such as the Hemi Snowblower and Hemi paper shredder.

SexBox, The Adults Only Gaming Console Is Coming

Finally, we adults may have a console to call our own, one on which we can enjoy adult situations, adult language and adult movies. Silicon Xtal Corporation has filed a trademark for SexBox, a console dedicated to Adults Only entertainment.

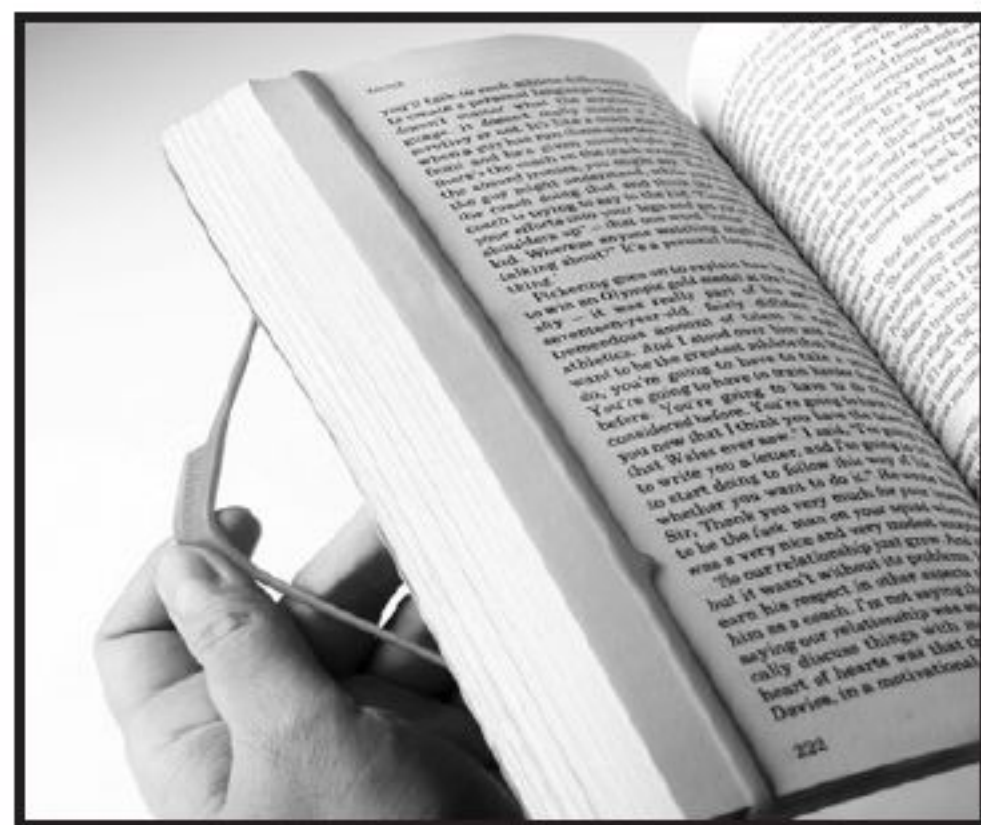

Silicon Xtal Corporation, an integrated circuit and passive component manufacturer, has filed for the SexBox trademark for a "Video Gaming System Console comprised of computer hardware with unique user controls which plays interactive Adult Only rated (AO) video game software titles." Considering there's not much in the way of AO rated titles, we're thankful for its other proposed capabilities.

According to the trademark filed with the US Patent and Trademark Office, dug up by Siliconera, the SexBox would have "proprietary software and firmware that provides access to associated AO content and entertainment in all other digital forms."

By that, they mean "audio, video, HDTV, DVD, online, gaming, social networking, webcams, video on demand, downloading, movie rentals, purchases, stores, advertising, interactive adult communities, massive multiplayer online games and emerging markets in one or any combination of these and more as technology evolves." Basically every digital avenue through which one can enjoy porn.

That "console" may also let players enjoy ultra-violent fare like Manhunt 2, but I'm guessing that's not really the point.

Monopoly City Streets Uses Google Maps As The Game Board

Monopoly, the board game that's torn families apart and created unrepairable rifts between friends is about to go online in a very big way. Monopoly City Streets is a collaboration between Hasbro and Google, and players will actually be able to use Google Maps to buy and build on literally millions of streets from around the world. The online version of the game will also introduce new structures like stadiums, castles and skyscrapers, as well as garbage dumps and prisons which can be constructed on other player's streets, diminishing their value. It's set to launch on September 9.

Use Your Bike To Recharge Your iPhone (And Other Gadgets)

The BioLogic FreeCharge is a nifty little device that hooks up to a bike equipped with a dyno hub, and allows you to charge USB devices. The FreeCharge is built around a small battery, which is used to regulate the power output of the dyno hub (which would otherwise damage sensitive electronics). A single USB port allows you to hook up any number of devices, and charge it while you're peddling down the street. This $99 gadget probably wouldn't be good for the occasional rider, but if you spend a couple of hours a day on your bike, it would be a worthwhile investment. Look for it on sale sometime next March

Jeju Loveland: South Korea's Naughty Adult Playground

From the second you enter the parted legs that frame the entrance to Jeju Loveland, you know this will be an, um, stimulating experience. South Korean culture frowns on public displays of affection and living together before marriage. So, many shy newlyweds honeymoon on Jeju Island, where hotels offer lap dances and other racy amenities to loosen couples up. Loveland complements those efforts with more than 140 different sexual sculptures ranging from innocent (a sweet couple smooching) to explicit (an extremely limber threesome). Grab your sweetheart's hand as you stroll past a nipple mountain and penis fountain to the vibrator exhibit. Heat things up with a spin on the masturbation cycle if it, er, tickles your fancy. Though this may be the province of couples, the park feels more like a teen boy's daydreams come to life: Women must grasp an erect penis to enter the bathroom, while men turn the nipples of two ample breasts. But Loveland isn't in the business of sex ed: Children under the age of 18 are not admitted.

SEX IN THE NEWZ

A Woman With Two Vaginas!

Have you ever imagined what your sex life might be like if you had two vaginas? Hmm ... double the vaginas, double the pleasure, right? Not, according to 28-year-old Brit Lauren Williams, who actually had two vaginas. After getting tired of tending to her 21-day period (OMG, kill me now), she suspected something might be wrong with the lady bits and went to get it checked out. After a lot of confusion and misdiagnosis, her vagina's double life was revealed. She had two of everything—two vags, two uteri, two cervixes. Evidently, this is a rare disorder called a "bicornuate uterus." Lauren was shocked; she had never noticed before, nor had her doctors or boyfriends. But why would her boyfriends have said anything—each of her two vaginas was very small if you know what I'm sayin'. Lauren underwent surgery to remove the barrier between her vags, leaving her with one vagina.

Teens Filmed Sex Act In Fear Of Large Hadron Collider Ending World

Police are investigating at least three teenagers from a Brisbane, Australia state high school for allegedly filming sex acts on a mobile phone, and distributing it to other students.

Two students aged between 13 and 15 performed the sex acts in the toilets during school hours several months ago.

A source told the paper that the incident occurred after the launch of the particle accelerator ring, the Large Hadron Collider (LHC), which some dubbed a 'doomsday device'.

It is understood that the girl wanted to lose her virginity to the boy - believing that the world was about to end.

Another student filmed the sex acts on his mobile phone without the girl's knowledge, and then circulated it around the school and the wider community via bluetooth.

Church Urges Couples To Pray Before Sex

Newly-wed Roman Catholic couples are being encouraged to say a special prayer together before having sex.

The specially-composed Prayer Before Making Love is aimed at 'purifying their intentions' so the act is not about selfishness or hedonism.

It appears in the 64-page Prayer Book for Spouses which has been published by the London-based Catholic Truth Society, reports the Daily Mail.

The prayer implores God 'to place within us love that truly gives, tenderness that truly unites, self-offering that tells the truth and does not deceive, forgiveness that truly receives, loving physical union that welcomes'.

It adds: "Open our hearts to you, to each other and to the goodness of your will."

Sexy Female Caddies Banned From Golf Courses

A golfing organization in England has banned a service that provides sexy female caddies at four of its courses, saying it damages the integrity of the sport.

Eye Candy Caddies offers a variety of models who wear tight pink attire and accompany golfers for 18 holes and a drink at the clubhouse. Prices start around $375 per round.

Company spokeswoman Sarah Stacey defended the professionalism of the Eye Candy Caddies service, citing the fact "the girls are trained in the etiquette of golf and uniformed in appropriate golf attire."

But the fuddy-duddies over at Leaderboard, the company that imposed the ban, justified their actions saying, "Anyone who seriously cares about the development of the game should work to ensure that it is as professional, inclusive, and culturally inoffensive as any other major sport."

In "Caddyshack" parlance, this is a total Judge Smalls move.

Adolf Hitler Sex Video Condemned By Aids Charities

The provocative commercial, which ends with the tag-line "AIDS is a mass murder", aims to scare young people into using condoms by associating the deadly disease with the German dictator.

The commercial has been released to coincide with 2009 World Aids Day, but established HIV/Aids charities have distanced themselves from its message, saying that it could make life more difficult for sufferers.

The commercial was produced by the young Hamburg-based advertising agency das comitee on behalf of a small German Aids awareness group called Regenbogen e.V.

The group could not be contacted for comment this morning but defended its controversial approach on the "AIDS is a mass murder" website.

Diablo Cockring

BMS Enterprises helps the bad boys of the world express themselves with the new Diabolic, a cock ring designed to help the user get a little naughty.

"We've had enough of the good boy rings, i.e. bunnies and dolphins," said Steve Bannister, head of BMS Enterprises. "With the Diabolic, you can be a bad boy. If you do something really naughty, blame it on the devil. He made you do it."

The Diabolic is powered by the three-speed Power Bullet, which is inserted in the top of the head, making for a more streamlined design that contours to the body better. And the Diabolic is packaged in a ready-to-hang devilish box that's sure to spark attention.

Kayden Kross Competes in 'Girls of Spike' Contest

Adam & Eve contract performer Kayden Kross has been named a contender in the "Girls of Spike 2009: The Search for the Ultimate Spike Girl" contest.

Fans may visit the site (spike.com/spike-girl/501179) and vote for Kross in the first round of selection through Sept. 14, 2009. Kross's latest adult feature is The 8th Day.

There are 47 contestants competing for the title of "Ultimate Spike Girl," and Kross is the only adult performer on the ballot that also includes Playboy models and NBA and NFL cheerleaders, among others.

The second round of voting is scheduled from Sept. 14-30, and the winner will be announced at 11 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 1, on Spike TV.

Domestic Battery Case Dropped Against Porn Star

A domestic battery case against porn star and potential Louisiana U.S. Senate contender Stormy Daniels has been dropped after the alleged victim chose not to prosecute.

Daniels, whose real name is Stephanie Gregory Clifford, was arrested in Florida in July and charged after her husband told Tampa police that she hit him several times in a dispute about laundry and unpaid bills.

A spokeswoman with the state attorney's office in Hillsborough County says prosecutors could not Daniels announced her interest in a 2010 run for a Senate seat in Louisiana in May. She launched a "listening tour" through that state in July. Her attorney could not be reached for comment.

Bikini-Clad Teacher Tiffany Shepherd Turns To Porn After Being Fired From Florida High School

A Floridian biology teacher fired after posing for racy pictures has landed a new career — in pornography.

Tiffany Shepherd, 31, made headlines in April after bikini-clad pictures of her on a fishing charter got her canned from Port St. Lucie High School. She turned to doing porn, she told a Florida news outlet, after losing custody of two of her three kids to her ex-husband and sending out 2,500 resumes — some even to prisons — without landing a new teaching job.

"I'm not particularly proud of it. To be honest, I hate it," Shepherd told Page2live.com. "I'm an educated woman, but I never thought it would come to this. No one gets brought up thinking they'll be a floozy."

On screen, Shepherd goes by the name Leah Lust and has filmed five feature films, including one titled 'My first sex teacher,' where Shepherd portrays the very job she's been trying to get back.

"It's very professional," says Shepherd on the Web site. "Everyone's tested -- for venereal diseases and AIDS -- and I'm carrying around my little piece of paper that says I'm fine. They love me because I take care of myself and I don't run out to party with my money."

Shepherd got into the business after the captain of the fishing charter that got her into trouble in the first place recommended it as a way to make good money. Captain Gil Coombes, of the boat 'Smokin 'Em,' owns a porn Web cam studio with his wife, Kat, called KLC productions.

"We sat down with her and told her she'd never get a teaching job again," Coombes told Page2live.com. "So I told her, use 'em before they fall to the ground. But God, does she need to work on her acting!"

Jon & Kate Get The Porn Spoof Treatment

It was bound to happen. The tabloid news story which has littered the covers of our favorite ce-leb weekly glossies is now getting even smuttier. "Jon & Kate F**k Eight" will be released by porn company Devil's Film on Sept. 14 and, strangely enough, it will put a somewhat positive spin on the bitter divorce battle between Jon and Kate Gosselin.

"In our movie they go to marriage counseling and come out with the suggestion that maybe they should go out there and bang other people," explains Devil's Film sales manager Steve Volpini. "So they do and then it turns out that after they sow their wild oats that they are meant to be together."

How romantic! The movie stars Riley Evans as Kate, Frankie Young as Jon, and Amy Starz, Evie Delatosso, Kristy West, Ashton Pierce, Ralph Long, Jenner, and Alex Gonz in various, er, supporting roles.

Joanna Angel Joins Cast of 'Haunting Kira'

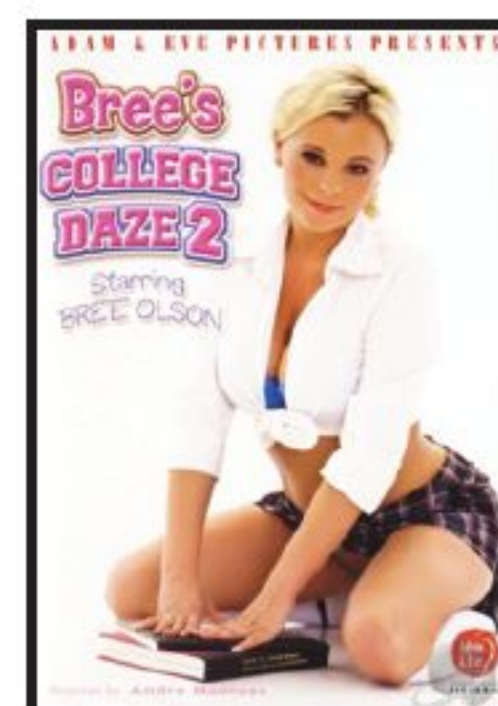

As if its cast wasn't hot enough, Haunting Kira broke the news Thursday night on Twitter that Joanna Angel will be joining the independent horror film's roster.

The award-winning pioneer and princess of punk porn joins the likes of Rachel Grubb (Strip Club Slasher), Kathleen Kinmont (Bride of Re-Animator), Monique Dupree (Skeleton Key 2) and Donna Hamblin (Killer Biker Chicks) in the project that was written and will be directed by special effects artist Teresa Fahs of Gorify.com fame. Also on board is Ari Lehman, who is best known as the first actor to play Jason Voorhees in the "Friday the 13th" franchise.

Haunting Kira, which refers to itself as a "Women in Horror" production, tells the story of a ghost that has reanimated a rotting corpse and roams the streets of Las Vegas.

Bree's College Daze 2 Adam & Eve Pictures

Bree comes to the rescue of three young sorority girls who need money to pay their house bills. How is she going to do this? By charging guys to view them having sex online. Bree's already got the website, the girls have the house, now they gotta bring over some guys who are willing to pay for sex and not mind being filmed. With these hot ladies who could say no.

Bree's College Daze 2 includes five smoking sex scene from Bree Olson (2), Lexi Belle, Teri Black and Madison Ivy. Plus lots of extra: digital download, behind the scenes, interviews, bloopers, photo gallery and a bonus sex scene with Jaslin Diaz and Maria Mc Cray from Kayden's Friskey Business. It's one of my favorite girl/girl scenes.

Fan's of Bree Olson are really gonna like this release. Her all natural girl next door beauty is popular with a lot of guys and she doesn't disappoint with her sex scenes. Of all the girls, she has the most animated and vocal sex. My favorite in this release is Lexi Belle, but Teri Black's scene was pretty good also. Petite little Lexi Belle screwed to break or be broken. Her getting all hot and sweaty made my temperature rise a few degrees. -Gil Tha Thrill

A Taste of Stoya Digital Playground

"A Taste of Stoya" includes kinky performers Jenna Presley, Mason Moore, and Bridgette B, all of whom have a thirst for cum. The movie features Stoya's best performance to date as she teases James before letting him anal fuck her to submission.

After working herself into a frenzy with a couple of fingers, Stoya let's Mick Blue finish the job with his tongue and cock. Stoya warms up her scene with James Deen by engaging in some fetish tease before offering up her tight asshole for hot, anal play. James' insatiable hunger leads him to eat out Stoya's wet pussy and ass. Sexy girls Jenna Presley, Mason Moore, and Bridgette B. all want to pleasure their men, hoping for nothing more than a taste of their stud's salty load in return. "A Taste of Stoya" is packed with delicious, kinky sex from start to end!

Homoerotic Frat-Boy Contractors in Afghanistan Get Fired

The State Department announced today that eight of the security contractors in Kabul who were featured drinking "buttshots" of vodka off one another in photos we published Tuesday have been fired, and two more quit.

The U.S. embassy in Kabul also announced that the senior management team for ArmorGroup North America, the contractor responsible for ensuring the security of the embassy, will be replaced immediately. Earlier this week, the Project on Government Oversight wrote a letter to Secretary of State Hillary Clinton detailing its investigation into weird Lord of the Flies-style hazing among guards at the embassy, including "eating potato chips out of ass cracks."

POGO has released a statement worrying that some of the contractors may have been wrongly fired and that the State Department is simply canning everyone in the photos: "We have been told people are being fired for simply being in the photographs. We do know a number of those were unwilling participants."

Help Wanted: Lion Tamer

A circus owner runs an ad for a lion tamer and two people show up.. One is a good looking, older retired golfer in his late sixties and the other is a gorgeous blonde in her mid-twenties.

The circus owner tells them, "I'm not going to sugar coat it - This is one ferocious lion! He ate my last tamer so you two had better be good or you're history. Here's your equipment -- chair, whip and a gun. Who wants to try out first?"

The girl says, "I'll go first."

She walks past the chair, the whip and the gun and steps right into the lion's cage. The lion starts to snarl and pant and begins to charge her. About half way there, she throws open her coat revealing her beautiful naked body.

The lion stops dead in his tracks, sheepishly crawls up to her and starts licking her feet and ankles. He continues to lick and kiss her entire body for several minutes and then rests his head at her feet.

The circus owner's jaw is on the floor.

He says, "I've never seen a display like that in my life." He then turns to the retired golfer and asks, "Can you top that?"

The tough old golfer replies, "No problem, just get that lion out of the way!"

Did I Ever Tell You The One About... And other strange oddities of the world

Dog Deflates NC Deputy's Tires After Dog Complaint

Some dogs chase cars. One in a North Carolina town decided to try and eat one. The Cumberland County Sheriff's Office says a pit bull deflated all four tires of a deputy's cruiser near Hope Mills on Sunday. Spokeswoman Debbie Tanna said the deputy parked his car in a woman's driveway while responding to her complaint about another dog.

When Deputy Lynn Lavallis went to speak with Gloria Bass, the dog chomped into the tires. The dog didn't attack the deputy in the town near Fayetteville.

Tanna says the dog's owner, Bass's next-door neighbor, will be billed $500 for a new set of wheels.

Excuse Me, Ma'am, Are You Slushing?

Grocery store cameras caught the woman taking a 24-can case of beer from a cooler, exposing the 20-pound case between her thighs by pulling up her housedress, pulling her dress back down, and waddling out of the store. But it took a while to identify and find her.

Lisa Newsome, 42, of Baker, didn't deny anything when she was arrested Monday, said Capt. David McDavid of the Zachary Police Department.

"She wanted to demonstrate it ..." he said. "I told her, no thanks, I wasn't into that. We weighed a case," he said. "It was 20 pounds."

Honolulu Seeking To Ban 'BO' On Buses

Stinky city bus riders soon could get soaked. The Honolulu City Council is considering a bill that would impose up to a $500 fine and/or up to six months in jail for public transit passengers convicted of being too smelly.

The bill will be heard Thursday in committee. It would make it illegal to have "odors that unreasonably disturb others or interfere with their use of the transit system."

It doesn't matter if it's body odor or offensive fumes that emanates from clothes, personal belongings or animals.

Mich. Church Enlists Satan In Advertising Campaign

A Michigan church is enlisting Satan in a bid to drum up attendance at services. Metro South Church in the Detroit suburb of Trenton is posting signs saying the non-denominational Christian congregation "sucks" and "makes me sick."

The ads are signed by Satan.

The campaign even has a Web site explaining why Satan hates the church.

Youth Pastor Adam Dorband told WJBK-TV the church is trying to reach out to people and cut through the "noise."

Dorband said Jesus "wants us to be creative and he wants us to ... use whatever it takes to reach people."

Pastor Jeremy Schossau said the campaign is meant to be whimsical and isn't intended to upset anyone.

Drunk Grandmaster Checkmated After Dozing Off

A leading French chess player turned up drunk and dozed off after just 11 moves in an international tournament in Kolkata, losing the round on technical grounds, domestic media reported Friday.

Grandmaster Vladislav Tkachiev arrived for Thursday's match against India's Praveen Kumar in such an inebriated state that he could hardly sit in his chair and soon fell asleep, resting his head on the table, Hindustan Times newspaper reported.

The game was awarded to the Indian on the technical ground of Tkachiev being unable to complete his moves within the stipulated time of an hour and 30 minutes, the paper said.

The player was warned and reprimanded by the organizers afterwards but has been allowed to take part in the remainder of the competition, the paper said.

Man Allegedly Calls 911 Twice To Say He's Hungry

Authorities said a man was arrested after calling 911 twice for a ride and saying he was hungry. Police reports said Benjamin Dewer, 26, was charged early Wednesday with making false calls to 911. The report said Dewer was apparently drunk when police found him sitting on a sidewalk. He asked police for a ride to a park and told them he was hungry.

Neb. Police Arrest Boy For DUI, Hit-And-Run Crash

Lincoln police said a 12-year-old boy was drunk when he stole a car, hit three objects and tried to flee. But a 41-year-old neighbor chased down the boy, tackled him and held him until police arrived to arrest him Tuesday night. Lincoln police Chief Tom Casady said the boy took a 1988 Honda that had the keys in it from a Kwik Shop. Police were called after the Honda hit a fence, stop sign and parked car in a neighborhood.

Md. Police Say Man Tried To Pay For Gas With Pot

Frederick County sheriff's deputies have arrested a man after he allegedly offered store clerks in New Market marijuana to pay for gasoline. It happened Monday about 3 p.m. at the Classic Fuels Store on Old National Pike. Deputies said a 52-year-old man offered marijuana to pay for gasoline, and a clerk in the store called authorities.

News, Rumors and Gossip

Activist Outs South Carolina Lawmaker As Gay

Add activist blogger Mike Rogers to the list of people outing South Carolina Lieutenant Governor Andre Bauer.

Rogers, who claims a perfect outing record, said in a Monday post at blogactive.com that "Bauer is a closeted anti-gay politician."

In June, openly lesbian politician Linda Ketner made a similar allegation about Bauer and two other South Carolina lawmakers during an interview published on the progressive political blog Fire Dog Lake.

"We have more gay people serving in South Carolina than probably in any place in the United States. They're just not out of the closet," she said, then gave the examples of U.S. Senator Lindsey Graham, South Carolina State Senator Glenn McConnell and Lieutenant Governor Andre Bauer. Ketner, who came close to unseating incumbent South Carolina Representative Henry Brown last November, later apologized for her remarks.

As South Carolina Governor Mark Sanford resisted calls to step down over an embarrassing sex scandal in July, his likely replacement quickly went on the offensive, and without prompting denied rumors that he was gay.

"One word, two letters. 'No.' Let's go ahead and dispel that now," Bauer said in an interview with The State, then added, "Is Andre Bauer gay? That is now the story. We're a long way from where we were a week ago."

Bauer calls himself "South Carolina's hardest working elected official" and is considered a social conservative, appearing often with anti-gay former presidential candidate Mike Huckabee. He assumed office in 2003 after serving in both chambers of the legislature.

Rogers' work recently appeared in Director Kirby Dick's controversial documentary Outrage. The film looks at the lives of gay politicians who remain deep in the closet and actively support an anti-gay agenda.

Ben & Jerry's Renames Legendary Flavor to Celebrate Freedom to Marry

Ben & Jerry's, known for its euphoric ice cream flavors and dedication to social justice, celebrates the beginning of the freedom to marry for gay and lesbian couples in Vermont with the symbolic renaming of its well-known ice cream flavor "Chubby Hubby" to "Hubby Hubby." In partnership with Freedom to Marry, Ben & Jerry's aims to raise awareness of the importance of marriage equality and, to show its support, will serve "Hubby Hubby" sundaes in Vermont Scoop Shops throughout the month of September.

Ben & Jerry's has a long history of commitment to social justice, including gay rights. Its partnership with Freedom to Marry, a national leader in the movement for marriage equality, aims to raise awareness of the importance of marriage equality and to encourage other states to follow the blazing trails of Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Iowa, and Maine. Freedom to Marry promotes the national conversation about why marriage equality matters and brings together partner organizations into a larger whole — a shared civil rights campaign.

For more information on why marriage equality matters and to take action in your state, please log on to freedomtomarry.org. ### Harvey Milk Day Bill Heads To Schwarzenegger's Desk

All eyes are on California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger as a proposed Harvey Milk Day bill heads towards his desk.

State Senator Mark Leno's bill would set aside Milk's May 22 birthday to honor the gay rights leader.

Milk became the first openly gay elected official from a major U.S. city when he was elected to the San Francisco Board of Supervisors in 1977. He won on a platform of civil rights but his tenure was cut short when he was gunned down by a disgruntled former supervisor, Dan White, the following year.

Lawmakers approved the bill for a second time Thursday, after Schwarzenegger vetoed a similar bill last year, saying Milk's accomplishments should be celebrated at the local level.

But Milk's profile has soared during the intervening months. President Obama honored Milk with a Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian award; the California Museum, which was conceived by Schwarzenegger's wife, Maria Shriver, is about to induct him into its California Hall of Fame; and a movie about his life, Milk, drew national attention to the tumultuous early years of the gay rights movement.

Conservatives are dead set against the idea of honoring a gay politician. Randy Thomasson, president of SaveCalifornia.com, is heading the fight against a Harvey Milk Day. The group is behind a campaign of phone calls, faxes and emails that urge the governor to veto the bill.

Senator Leno says Milk's heightened stature will win the governor over. But the last we heard from the governor's spokesman on the issue was that he had not changed his mind.

Free Eats

One afternoon a lawyer was riding in his limousine when he saw two men along the roadside eating grass. Disturbed, he ordered his driver to stop and he got out to investigate.

He asked one man, "Why are you eating grass?"

"We don't have any money for food," the poor man replied. "We have to eat grass."

"Well, then, you can come with me to my house and I'll feed you," the lawyer said.

"But sir, I have a wife and two children with me. They are over there, under that tree."

"Bring them along," the lawyer replied.

Turning to the other poor man he stated, "You come with us, also."

The second man, in a pitiful voice, then said, "But sir, I also have a wife and SIX children with me!"

"Bring them all, as well," the lawyer answered.

They all entered the car, which was no easy task, even for a car as large as the limousine was. Once underway, one of the poor fellows turned to the lawyer and said, "Sir, you are too kind. Thank you for taking all of us with you."

The lawyer replied, "Glad to do it. You'll really love my place. The grass is almost a foot high."

Cussing at Work

Dear Employees:

It has been brought to management's attention that some individuals throughout the company have been using foul language during the course of normal conversation with their co-workers.

Due to complaints received from some employees who may be easily offended, this type of language will no longer be tolerated.

We do, however, realize the critical importance of being able to accurately express your feelings when communicating with co-workers.

Therefore, a list of 18 New and Innovative 'TRY SAYING' phrases have been provided so that proper exchange of ideas and information can continue in an effective manner.

Number 1

TRY SAYING: I think you could use more training.

INSTEAD OF: You don't know what the f___ you're doing.

Number 2

INSTEAD OF: No f___ing way.

Number 5

TRY SAYING: Really?

INSTEAD OF: You've got to be sh___ing me!

Number 6

TRY SAYING: Perhaps you should check with...

INSTEAD OF: Tell someone who gives a sh___.

Number 7

TRY SAYING: I wasn't involved in the project.

INSTEAD OF: It's not my f___ing problem.

Number 8

TRY SAYING: That's interesting.

INSTEAD OF: What the f___?

Number 9

TRY SAYING: I'm not sure this can be implemented.

INSTEAD OF: This sh___ won't work.

Number 10

Want safe sex? You need bread

Some women believe bread, cling film and chicken skin can be used instead of condoms, a poll by a healthcare giant revealed today.

The survey of 1,000 women aged 18 to 50 unearthed a number of bizarre ideas about family planning.

One in five detailed bizarre methods of contraception including eating garlic or using bread, plastic wrap or chicken skin as a barrier method.

The poll, carried out by Opinion Health for drug manufacturer Bayer Schering Pharma, also found a number of misunderstandings about the contraceptive pill.

Half of those surveyed wrongly thought that taking the pill long term could cause infertility, and 10 per cent said that it would always take a number of years to regain fertility after coming off the medication.

More than a third thought that the greatest risk of getting pregnant while taking the combined contraceptive pill occurred in the middle of a pack, when in fact it is at the beginning and end.

The combined pill contains oestrogen and progesterone.

Dr Annie Evans, Women's Health Specialist at the Bristol Sexual Health Centre, said: "It is not surprising that this survey has uncovered how widespread contraceptive myths still are in this country, given that Britain continues to have the highest unintended pregnancy rate in Europe, with as many as 50 per cent of births being unintended. It is vital that women are made aware of the facts, using the credible sources of information available to them."

1,000 women aged 18 to 50 were polled online in May.

The 24 Types Of Sex

1. Break Up: When you know you'll never do it again ... sigh. Didn't we almost have it all? Well, now I'll have you one last time.

2. Make Up: I nearly lost you. But now that I can do you again, I will do you again, and with extra enthusiasm.

3. Thank You: Those diamond earrings just earned you the BJ of your life. You made me grateful, now I want you to be too.

4. Hate: Your dream girl is Sarah Palin, while I campaigned for Obama. Let's stop debating and start really messing with each other's point of view.

5. Drunken: Too screwed-up to completely screw. You're way sedated and can't get off, so you just pass out.

6. Too Tired: Like doin' it with a sex doll. You're too sleepy to get creative, athletic, or orgasmic. But the other person isn't...

7. One-Night Stand: Could overlap with the drunken, hate, and pity screws. But there's something so seductive about doin' it like there's no tomorrow.

8. Reckless: You go so wild, something breaks. Hopefully, it's the lamp on your nightstand, not something that'll land you on our list of Weird Sex Accidents.

9. Pity: You feel bad for him, and before you know it, he's feeling you up. Later, you feel bad for yourself.

10. Wedding Night: Even if you've waited until marriage to get it on, you're pooped from partying. But you want to seal that deal ASAP to make those I dos legal. Which brings us to...

11. Morning: As '60s folk swinger Donovan can tell you, he always wakes up ready to go. Convenient.

12. Afternoon Delight: AKA "The Nooner." You got a lunch hour, and that is all the time you need to meet up and beat it.

13. Can't Sleep: I can't sleep. So, I'm going to wake you—all of you—up.

14. Teary: Sometime you cry because it's so good, sometimes you cry because it's so bad.

15. Quickie: You're on the go and you need to get some, fast. It's amazing how you can get off in 15 minutes, when, say, you're worried someone will figure out what you're doing in that airplane bathroom.

16. Pitch A Tent: Two floozies in a flimsy shelter is strangely sexy, even to a city girl. Hey, in a small space, you gotta make do.

17. Guilt: You owe them one for that nice steak dinner. And you know if you screw them, you'll settle the score.

18. Like A Virgin: When you decide to do something kinky that you've never done, you're not just knockin' boots, and your knees are knocking too. You feel so innocent, even if you're an experienced woman like Madonna.

19. First Time: A ceremonial/painful rite of passage. Whether it's replete with scented candles and slow jams or a tumble in the back of his truck, it's always an eye opener.

20. Phone/IM/Cyber: Technology is really doin' it! But you have to be a good actor to make these as exciting.

21. Bad: Sometimes it's too late to realize you've got no chemistry and they've got no skills.

22. Reunion: Taking a stroll down memory lane. You think you know all his/her moves, but then they surprise you with what they've learned since you last boned. Just try not to think about who taught them those extras.

23. Meat & Potatoes: You've got it down. Kiss kiss, bang bang. Works every time.

24. Trophy: You just want to win one. You are a sex champion, my friend.

Changing The Taste Of Oral Sex

There's no need to fear the climax of oral sex anymore, not with Sweet Release Male. New to www.shytobuy.co.uk, this new herbal supplement changes the taste of semen, taking away the nasty salty taste and replacing it with the fruity tangy taste of apple.

Sweet Release male is a 100% natural new supplement that's been developed by Blue Mountain Nutraceuticals to help men and women get more out of oral sex. Taking just two tablets a day for a week or more will transform both the taste and scent of semen to sweet delicious apple.

Sweet Release is made from a blend of natural fruit ingredients. So not only is it suitable for vegetarians, but it's an amazing dietary supplement that's incredibly good for anyone. It's anti-bacterial, it promotes low cholesterol, improves your immune system, it's packed full of omega 3 and omega 6 - and it makes oral sex more fun for boys and girls!

"Every guy enjoys oral sex and probably wishes he could get it more often" says ShytoBuy assistant site manager James Schofield. "Sweet Release is great because it takes away the taste problem so your partner will be able to totally relax when they treat you because there's no nasty surprise at the end. And guys needn't be shy either, because we also stock Sweet Release Female too!"

ShytoBuy is an international one-stop-shop that sells a huge variety of treatments for embarrassing sexual, cosmetic or physical problems that anyone might feel reluctant to seek treatment for. From awkward sexual problems to ways to spice up your sex life, ShytoBuy understands and is there to help you find the best solution.

Beautiful Women Render Men Stupid

Dutch researchers had male students perform a test involving memorizing strings of letters. Then the students spent seven minutes talking to a male or female, before taking another memory test. There was no difference in the scores when they had spoken to a guy, but their scores declined when they had talked to a woman, and did so in accordance with how attractive they rated her.

The researchers repeated this test with female students and found their scores stayed the same no matter whom they spoke to.

We understand that further research was planned for this study, but it was quickly abandoned after researchers became sidetracked by the sexy female participants.

Sex Toys Now More Complicated Than Actual Sex

The fleshlight, already the creepiest of all sex toys, just got even creepier with Fleshlight Motion, touted as the "ultimate hands-free experience."

We guess if you don't feel ashamed of buying realistic genitalia to have sex with, you won't be ashamed to purchase one of these mountable versions with names like "Double Dog Dare" and "Let it Ride" either.

But even though there's technically nothing shameful about sex toys, there's something about this sentence from the Web site that makes us want to quietly walk away from the Internet whistling and never look back. "This wipeable mount also includes the patented microfiber base for non-skid use with the Hit the Floor Motion Pad."

Wipeable. Skid. Mount. Good luck ever feeling clean again!
